

Physiotherapist / Senior Physiotherapist

JH REHABILITATION – Kilpauk Garden Colony, Kilpauk, Chennai

Job Description

Job Summary

- Seeing patients
- Documentation of all patient evaluation and treatments
- Teaching and managing interns
- Administrative responsibilities and
- Being involved in continued medical education (CME)

Responsibilities and Duties

- You will see patients during regular business hours, 50 hours a week, Monday through Saturday, in the outpatient setting.
- You will see patients individually or in groups.
- You will also be teaching and managing Physiotherapy therapy interns who will be helping you manage the group.
- Candidates who have interest in additional administrative responsibilities (such as running a blog on our website or being in charge of volunteer services program or arrange a learning workshops and lectures, or being in charge of quality improvement projects or any project you come up on your own that could be of value to this organization) are strongly encouraged and additional compensation will be provided.
- We intend to make this an educational institution for rehabilitation professionals so therapists will have opportunities to learn new skills, and stay update in their area of specialization.
- Candidates, who are interested in research and publication, continued medical education, would be supported.

Required Experience, Skills and Qualifications

- Minimum of 2-3 years of experience working with adult neurological population
- Curriculum vitae

Benefits

Exposure to an interdisciplinary team approach, virtual reality system, body weight supported treadmill, community integration (return to work, school, college etc), exposure to CME by U.S. clinicians for free, and good compensation.

Job Types: Full-time, Contract

Salary: ₹25,000.00 to ₹35,000.00 /month